

Towards Justice Together!

War Tax Resistance & Organizing Against Racist State Violence

Friday, August 4th

6 PM Potluck Dinner
Please bring a dish!

7 - 9 PM Workshop
With Sam Koplinka-Loehr

Twin Cities Friends
1725 Grand Ave
St Paul, Minnesota

This community workshop will provide an overview of the history, reasons, and practice of war tax resistance. It will also include information on the growing effort to redirect tax dollars to resistance efforts that are led by Black, Brown, and Indigenous organizers. Please join us for this timely workshop and discussion about building community power for justice in Minneapolis and St Paul!

Sam Koplinka-Loehr lives in Philadelphia and is a community organizer with the National War Tax Resistance Coordinating Committee. Sam is also actively involved with Decarcerate Louisiana, and the Environmental Justice Initiative.
