

IRS Dials 'No' on Refusal

Persons who refuse to pay the federal excise tax on telephone service during the April Moratorium demonstrations could have the tax deducted from their earnings or bank account, according to the office of the Internal Revenue Service. In addition, they could be fined up to $10,000 or imprisoned for up to five years or both.

The Utica Moratorium Committee plans to hand out leaflets April 13, 14 and 15 in front of the New York Telephone Company's office building at 270 Genesee Street. The leaflets will urge telephone customers not to pay the federal excise tax which is included in their telephone bills. The Moratorium Committee claims that the excise tax is used to further "the war machine" and says persons refusing to pay cannot be prosecuted.

A spokesman for the IRS yesterday quoted Section 6331 of the IRS Code, entitled Levy and Distraint.

"If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same within 10 days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate to collect such tax and such further sum as should be sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy by a levy upon all property (except such property as is exempt under Section 6334) belonging to such person."

Punishment for non-payment is covered in Section 7201 of the same code.

"Any person who willfully attempts, in any manner to evade this title or payments shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years or both, together with the costs of prosecution."

The Moratorium Committee decided at its Tuesday meeting to picket the Internal Revenue Service in addition to passing out leaflets in front of the Telephone Company.

Bayh Kin Are Shot

ENID, Okla. (AP)—The father and stepmother of Mrs. Birch Bayh, wife of Indiana's Democratic senator, were found shot to death Wednesday in their home in what authorities described as an apparent murder and suicide.

Sau'd detective Ron Duncan said the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Harn were found in their white frame, middle-class home in this north-central Oklahoma town after an apartment tenant stopped by to pay his rent. "It's an apparent murder and suicide," said Asst. Dist. Atty. Norman Lamb.

Wear-tested at Grand Central Station for 30 days, one million New York feet traced dirt deep into our "Rough'n Ready" Indoor-Outdoor Carpet and didn't hurt it. Stain and static resistant. If Grand Central Station couldn't hurt "Rough'n Ready," neither will you. In fact, 34 common household stains wiped up without a trace. 8 fade resistant earth-tone colors. Avocado Leaf, Tawny Gold, Fiesta Cranberry, Aquamarine... they all stand up to the test of time. Sani-Gard treated that makes it anti-bacterial, so it's perfect for kitchens, nurseries and poolside. Meets the requirements of the FHA. The Federal Housing Authority approved "Rough'n Ready" for use in commercial institutions. If it would hold up in a hotel, it'll hold up in your home. Marvex polypropylene olefin. The olefin pile is the secret behind "Rough'n Ready's" strength. Indoors, outdoors, it won't rot, shrink and is unaffected by mildew.
