Money Poses Party Problem

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders said today that they would not return to the House floor to vote on a bill to settle the government's dispute with the Internal Revenue Service under a 10-day notice. The IRS is generally permitted in cases where taxpayers fail to pay taxes because of a dispute with the government. The latter is to be paid in payment of the tax. The District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia has filed returns but do not pay the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax.

Appeal Made By Ginsburg

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders said today that they would not return to the House floor to vote on a bill to settle the government's dispute with the Internal Revenue Service under a 10-day notice. The IRS is generally permitted in cases where taxpayers fail to pay taxes because of a dispute with the government. The latter is to be paid in payment of the tax. The District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia has filed returns but do not pay the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax.

IRS Warns Objectors to Pay Taxes

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders said today that they would not return to the House floor to vote on a bill to settle the government's dispute with the Internal Revenue Service under a 10-day notice. The IRS is generally permitted in cases where taxpayers fail to pay taxes because of a dispute with the government. The latter is to be paid in payment of the tax. The District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia has filed returns but do not pay the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax.

Ford Blast Repudiated By McNamara

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders said today that they would not return to the House floor to vote on a bill to settle the government's dispute with the Internal Revenue Service under a 10-day notice. The IRS is generally permitted in cases where taxpayers fail to pay taxes because of a dispute with the government. The latter is to be paid in payment of the tax. The District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia has filed returns but do not pay the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax.

Appeal Made By Ginsburg

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders said today that they would not return to the House floor to vote on a bill to settle the government's dispute with the Internal Revenue Service under a 10-day notice. The IRS is generally permitted in cases where taxpayers fail to pay taxes because of a dispute with the government. The latter is to be paid in payment of the tax. The District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia has filed returns but do not pay the tax. The latter was seized in payment of the tax.